Other Uses

Graphology; It is possible to check the vibration rate of handwriting and determine the personality much like charting an astrological profile.

Identifying Geopathic aggressions; Geopathic wave emanations arise from the earth and can have damaging effects on health Use the LA to identify and perform simple remedial techniques to eliminate their negative impact on health.

21st Century Feng Shui ~ The LA can be used to find the best layout for furniture and the colours to use in your workplace or home. It can also be used to correct the spin of negative energies and promote a more harmonious atmosphere in a house or office.

Developing engineering projects; The LA is used to locate source points and underground obstacles such as water pipes or caverns, Hartmann lines or gases like radon that might negatively impact any construction or event in an area. Check for random radio waves, microwaves, cell phones etc and find lasting solutions with the LA.
